NOW, MEN, SEE HERE!

Ten Per Cent Discount at the Colburn Clothing Company's Store!

Today we will commence a great Bargain Sale and give you more value for your money than you ever received at a Clothing store before at this time of the year. But Clothing "bargains" are being advertised everywhere. Some are legitimate; some are false. If you would do a little shopping you would not need to be told which are which. And yet you might not notice the cotton. All these points we see at once, because it is our business to see them. You will see them, too, after you have worn the Clothing for a time, but then it will be too late. Come and see what real bargains are. Hats and Haberdashery are in it also. Remember these goods are all new and of the latest style. No old goods in our store.

The above amounts will be given to the 50 ladies who will tell us—in thirty words or less—the best reason why Antherea all-silk dress lining is superior to any other silks that sells for anything like its little price of 58 cents a yard.

Simply do this: Write or go to Homer Fitts' store in Barre, and procure some Antherea all-silk lining. A sample of the same, with the name of the dealer who sent it to you, must be mailed to us with your "thirty words or less." Contest closes September 1st. Prizes will be awarded October 20 and will be sent you by the dealer from whom you got your sample of Antherea. We personally guarantee the payments of the above amounts to the 50 successful ladies whose names will appear in the November issue. Do not put off sending your "thirty words" with sample of Antherea lining silk to Duncan & Stenz, 400 Broome Street, New York.

Here Most Has Reformed. Chicago, June 2.—Herr Johann Most was the principal speaker at a picnic given in Sharpshooters' park under the auspices of the Arbeiter Zeitung. Many anarchists were present, and a detail of police was stationed in the grove. Anarchy was not discussed. Most advised his audience to uphold the flag and constitution of the United States and refrain from any acts of violence.

AND BE CONVINCED.

What we ask of you is an inspection of our Spring and Summer Clothes ready to put on. We are giving you the choicest assortment ever seen in this town at prices not to be matched by anyone. We are offering you values that no firm can undersell, as our line of Suits for men of taste, for the young men of fancy and for the little fellows were selected by us with great care while in New York and Boston early in April purchasing goods preparatory to our new opening. These Suits are marvelously close to the tailor's handiwork in trimming, workmanship, style and durability.
